PRACTICAL TRAININGS

Objectives :

Lawyers are supposed to perform an important function of helping people to abide by the law. They are officers of Courts and supposed to help them arrive at the truth and just resolution of disputes. The successful operation of the delivery of justice depends upon the commitment of the lawyers to the case of justice. Various ethical questions arise in this connection. The purpose of these papers is to acquaint the student with:-

- (a) Social background of the lawyers.
- (b) How far career opportunities in the profession are determined by their Caste/Class/Sex/Context and public relation background?
- (c) How far the legal profession is professionalised in its dealings with the clients on the one hand and judges on the other?
- (d) How far legal profession is apprised of the law as an instrument of social change and law far it can participate meaningfully in the transformation effort?
- (e) What ethical standards are expected of the lawyers and how are such standards enforced?

This following syllabus of these papers is prepared to train the students to be a good lawyer. These papers are distributed in three parts:-

- (I) In classroom instruction which will carry 50 marks by written examination.
- (II) Field work will carry 30 marks.
